

It was a very nice surprise to get your Christmas present earlier this week - and surprise is the word; take the Anthony gel, apply it to the Anthony body and the result is a pair of testicles with a very strange sensation coming from them - not unpleasant, mind you; possibly there are people who would pay quite a lot of money to achieve what I am able to achieve for free!

Now the black, scrubby thing: Felicity has banned me from using it; she says that I cover the bathroom in black marks. However, she uses it; every night. Apparently she doesn't cover the bathroom in black marks. This seems a little unfair, but I am content to live vicariously; there is no doubt that she displays a certain skill with it
