

Dear Peter; The plane leaves here at 5:15 and gets to Nairobi at 7, according to Express Transport; that's Saturday night. I cannot get space until Alitalia the next day, which means I must be at the airport by midnight on Sunday. Is that going to be a very long haul?
On Saturday let us just drink and talk. I absolutely long to see "Becket", ad enclosed; probably you have. I could go on Sunday.

It is TOO exciting to be off and away for the big world again;
I've
~~if~~ had a belly full of heat and myself and what I'd like to be is a 19th century courtesan for six months anyhow. But won't; no chance; no luck. I shall be in the US on April 1, for my son's spring hols.

Longing to hear every scrap of your news; practise getting a good memory.

Love,

Martha
