

Dear Mr Marr

Thank God you're back. Having read the Independent from the first issue, I had decided yesterday to change papers; the tabloid style kiss n tell inserts on James Major were the final straw

Until the last few weeks, I had never come across a paper with such electrifying headlines. I now look forward to many more!

May I wish you the very best of luck in your "new" job